

2016 ICADD Millennium Fund Scholarship Application

In the spring of 2015 the ICADD Foundation was awarded an Idaho Millennium Fund grant offering a limited number of conference scholarships to support attendance by rural providers of SUD treatment, prevention and coalition building groups. The ICADD Foundation is grateful to the Idaho State legislature for its support of ICADD's efforts to enhance the SUD education of those in rural Idaho communities.

Guidelines:

1. Only one scholarship application per person.
2. Only residents or employees of agencies within the State of Idaho are eligible for scholarships.
3. Scholarships are non-transferable.
4. If eligible, each applicant will be responsible for booking/paying for travel and lodging arrangements.
5. ICADD Foundation will not be responsible for costs associated with travel cancellations or changes.
6. ICADD will reimburse direct airline costs or IRS mileage rate in accordance with the regional guidelines below.
7. Reimbursement will ONLY be provided to those who provide proof of attendance at ICADD. Proof of attendance will be a copy of scholarship recipient 2016 CEU form, stamped.
8. Each scholarship will provide a full conference registration, plus reimbursements according to the following regional rates:
