

Botvin Lifeskills® Training Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention Module

WHO: Target Audience is students in grades 6-9. Ideal for school districts, community-based organizations, and agencies serving middle school students.

WHAT: NEW Botvin Lifeskills® Training Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention Module.

WHERE: Available in both digital and print formats.

WHEN: Must be implemented by 06/15/2020

WHY: Substance Abuse Prevention Education designed to give teens the skills and knowledge necessary to help them avoid the misuse/abuse of opioids and prescription drugs. The 50-minute module can be implemented as a stand-alone module or integrated into Lifeskills® Training Middle School Program.

COST: $200 per facilitator cost will be covered by the Office of Drug Policy upon application. The print format includes instructional materials and 100 student worksheets. The digital format allows for an unlimited number of students.

ODP WILL COVER THE COST OF $200 PER TEACHER INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS NECESSARY TO IMPLEMENT THE PROGRAM.

APPLY HERE:

<https://form.jotform.com/83044474980159>

Additional details about the module may be found on the Botvin Lifeskills website: <https://www.lifeskillstraining.com/prescription-drug-abuse-prevention-module/>

Evidence-Based Prevention Programs for Schools, Families, and Communities

Questions?

Marianne King
(208)854-3040
Marianne.king@odp.idaho.gov